

My plans for FIFA 22

Starting from FIFA 22, the mod will be renamed from the Arab Expansion Mod to the International Expansion Mod. That change will happen because the mod in FIFA 22 will have more of an international focus than the mod on FIFA 21.

Regardless, that doesn't mean that Arab clubs and national teams won't be included. They will be included, but not as many clubs will feature. Before talking about that, let's talk about the new leagues that will be featured in FIFA 22 IEM.

New Leagues in FIFA 22:

- Uruguayan Primera División
- Qatar Stars League
- Russian Premier League
- National League
- Egyptian Premier League

- NWSL

In addition to those leagues (which will all hopefully have real players), I will also add in the Brazilian Serie A with real players and fully licensed kits and badges. Also, in addition to those leagues, some teams will be added to the rest of world section, like:

- Wydad AC
- Mamelodi Sundowns
- Raja Casablanca
- Esperance de Tunis
- Al Faisaly Amman
- Al Wehdat
- Kuwait SC
- CR Belouzidad
- Simba SC
- TP Mazembe
- Shabab Al Ahli
- FK Crvena Zvezda (Red Star Belgrade)
- Partizan Belgrade
- AC Omonia

- Apollon Limassol
- Zorya Luhansk
- Slovan Bratislava
- Slovan Liberec
- Ludogrets
- Sheriff Tiraspol
- Qarabag
- F91 Dudelange
- Maribor
- CSKA Sofia
- HNK Rijeka
- Auckland City
- Alajauanese FC (Costa Rica)
- Deportivo Saprissa
- Olimpia (Honduras)
- Istiklol FC
- Pakhator Tashkent
- Persepolis FC
- BG Pathum United
- Kitchee
- Al Zawraa

- APOEL and Ferencevaros (if they aren't in FIFA 22 by default)

In addition to those teams, I will also be adding some of the biggest clubs in women's football.

Ok, enough about the clubs, now onto additional features:

- 1- Transfer frequency improvements implemented in the AEM in FIFA 21 will be ported over to FIFA 22
- 2- Dynamic potential adjustments in the AEM in FIFA 21 will be ported over to FIFA 22 unless EA fixes it
- 3- All Wardrobe clothes will be unlocked in the IEM in FIFA 22 from the get-go.
- 4- Real Player faces for some of those who don't have one will be a part of the IEM in FIFA 22.
- 5- Miniface updates will be ported over to FIFA 22 unless EA have updated them

Thank you for the support that you have given me for the mod in FIFA 21, and I will work harder for the mod in FIFA 22. Please don't forget to spread the word around of the discord server and the mod. Finally, there will be a couple of features in the IEM that I haven't even mentioned.
